

As readers and writers, we will be... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Writing to entertain and describe (story writing). • Speaking and writing to explain and present information. • Continuing to speak and write in role as a character • Beginning to speak and write for a larger range of audiences. Learning will be based around a variety of texts including picture books, poetry, non-fiction information texts and a whole-class story. We will be looking at the real world and imaginary worlds. Grammar will continue to be taught through the context of the above and in separate SPAG lessons where it does not fit the context.	As historians we will be learning... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • About the First World War from why it began to the armistice. First World  War Working towards becoming historians.	As mathematicians we will be learning... To develop fluency, reasoning and problem solving across a range of areas including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding the value of numbers and place value including decimals. • Adding and subtracting decimal numbers with differing numbers of decimal places • Adding and subtracting whole numbers and decimals • Identifying and understanding decimal sequences • Multiplying and dividing decimals by 10, 100 and 1000 • Applying reasoning skills to problems by working strategically. Learning will continue to follow the White Rose scheme of work, with home learning activities most weeks to support this.
As geographers we will be learning... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To develop our map skills, identifying how maps can show different information. • About which countries and land areas were involved in the conflict. 	As theologians we will be learning ... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • About how worship and liturgy enables a Christian to grow and express their faith. We will also be considering our relationships with other people, thinking carefully about the different kinds of relationships we may experience throughout our lives. (PSHCE)	As athletes we will be... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Focusing on developing our technical understanding of athletic activity. We will learn how to set targets and improve our performance in a range of running, jumping and throwing activities. • We will also continue to improve our swimming techniques.
As scientists we will be learning... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To carry out a range of scientific experiments focusing on the properties of materials and the changes of state involving both reversible and irreversible changes. 	As musicians we will be learning... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • We will be developing our knowledge of music notation and the interrelated dimensions of music, through music theory, singing and through ukulele performance. 	As computing experts we will be developing... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Our computing skills to enable us to create artwork highlighting images from the First World War.
As artists and designers we will be... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Using a range of different media and techniques to produce artwork which represents the content of our theme. • We will be studying art produced by soldiers during the First World War. 		